

City of Redmond Planning Commission November 19, 2003 Meeting Summary

Planning Commissioners in Attendance:

Kate Dunn, Charlie McCarthy, Korby Parnell, Sue Petitpas, Martin Snodgrass

Staff in Attendance:

Lori Peckol, Terry Marpert, Gibran Hashmi, Redmond Planning Department

Business Conducted:

Commission Chair Martin Snodgrass called the meeting to order at 7:03 pm. Commissioners Bluechel and Allen were excused.

The agenda was approved with one change to remove the study session on Grass Lawn Neighborhood Plan update at staff's request.

Meeting summaries for September 17, October 15 and November 5 were approved. The meeting summary for November 12 was approved with two changes.

No citizens spoke officially under items from the audience, though one person in the audience commented that she had recently moved to Redmond and was interested in finding out more about the community and the Comprehensive Plan update work that is underway.

Commissioner Dunn moved and Commissioner Parnell seconded the motion to approve the Planning Commission's report to City Council on Seattle Telco Drive-Up ATM, Redmond Town Center. The motion passed, 5 to 0.

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on the 2003-2004 Comprehensive Plan Update, Transportation Chapter. Terry Marpert introduced Jim Charlier, Charlier Associates and described the purpose of the study session. Mr. Charlier spoke to the Commission about the "Review of Land Use Provisions" paper, and about an upcoming report on mobility. A summary of the Planning Commission's comments is attached.

Under reports, Lori Peckol reported on the November 18 City Council meeting and the November 5 Willows/Rose Hill neighborhood meeting. She also distributed copies of the Planning Commission's October 22 meeting summary and asked that Commissioners contact her with any comments by November 21 so that the meeting summary can be included with the Planning Commission's report on the Seattle Telco Drive-up ATM.

Under scheduling, the Planning Commission discussed potential dates and topics for their 2004 retreat.

Chair Snodgrass adjourned the meeting at 10:00 p.m.
